

POOL RULES

Guest Responsibilities

There is a risk in the participation of water slides and other attractions, and such participation may be hazardous regardless of safety measures undertaken by Payson City. All guests using the pools, water slides, and all other attractions, accept any and all risks in participating in Payson water park activities. Guests have a duty to exercise good judgment and act responsibly while using pool attractions and facilities. Guests will be expected to obey all pool rules, written and oral. Guests need to recognize that forces created by slides and attractions may cause or aggravate some adverse physical conditions and could injure people who are unable to deal with such forces.
